Products Liability & Warranty Defense

Ashlyn Mossy is a Litigation Attorney in the San Diego office of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP. She defends national and regional businesses in high exposure, civil litigation matters in state and federal court.

Her practice focuses on commercial litigation and corporate general liability, with an emphasis on automotive manufacturing and distribution. She represents manufacturers, distributors, and related entities in complex matters, including product liability, warranty claims, and high-exposure litigation. Her experience also includes construction and real estate-related disputes, as well as broader general liability matters.

Ashlyn's practice includes:

- Representation of manufacturers and distributors in product liability and warranty litigation
- Defense of corporate clients in general liability and commercial disputes
- Construction defect and real estate-related litigation
- Management of high-exposure, multi-party litigation matters
- Strategic case development, including written discovery, motion practice, and case resolution
- Coordination with clients and insurers in complex litigation environments

Ashlyn earned her Juris Doctor from Belmont University College of Law. She is admitted to practice in California, the District of Columbia, and Washington State. She also holds a degree in Sustainable Environmental Design from the University of California, Berkeley.
