Kate M. Grady is an Associate in Hahn Loeser's Cleveland office and is a member of the firm's Business area. Kate concentrates her practice on commercial real estate, finance and real estate transactions. She has extensive experience in title examination and review for title insurance purposes (for both residential and commercial real estate) and for mineral estates. With her prior experience working with title companies and as a landman, Kate has experience curing title defects, clearing liens, providing title opinions and assisting clients through the title process from inception to post-closing.

Kate is skilled at reviewing the diligence in connection with real estate acquisition and financing. With vast experience reviewing title documents, surveys, and zoning, Kate can solve the most complex title issues. Additionally, she has experience drafting many types of real estate documents including loan documents, security instruments, indemnities, NDAs, and estoppels.
