PRIMARY PRACTICES

Litigation

Complex Commercial Litigation

Lesley Randall is a seasoned paralegal with nearly two decades of experience supporting attorneys across commercial litigation, real estate, personal injury defense, bankruptcy, and healthcare-related legal matters. Lesley's main focus at Hahn Loeser will be with complex commercial litigation.

Lesley has worked with matters in both Florida state and federal courts. Her extensive experience includes drafting pleadings, managing discovery, preparing exhibits, coordinating witnesses, and handling subpoena responses, as well as navigating federal arbitration procedures related to the No Surprise Billing Act and Independent Dispute Resolution Process.

Lesley has contributed to multimillion-dollar commercial real estate transactions by preparing title documents, reviewing surveys and deeds, and supporting attorneys and title officers throughout the closing process.

Lesley holds a bachelor's degree in paralegal studies from the University of Central Florida.
