Nicholas Snider is an associate attorney in Hahn Loeser's Columbus office and is a member of the firm's Litigation Practice Area, where he focuses on complex commercial disputes, including construction matters. Nick began working with Hahn Loeser in 2024 as a summer associate.

Prior to Hahn Loeser, Nick served as a law clerk for Ohio State University's Student Legal Services, preparing complaints, motions and discovery for landlord-tenant disputes. He also wrote immigration applications for Ph.D. students pursuing National Interest Waivers and Extraordinary Ability visas. Nick has also spent significant time as a writer, grant writer, copywriter and editor for several organizations. His grant writing raised approximately $800,000 for essential community and academic services.

Nick earned his J.D. from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, where he was named an Eminent Scholar, granting him a full academic scholarship. He also spent a semester studying abroad in Leiden, Netherlands.

He graduated summa cum laude with a B.A. in English from Northern Kentucky University and completed a Master of Fine Arts degree in Creative Writing from Oregon State University.
