Construction

Sara Jawad is a dedicated litigation attorney with specific experience in providing general counsel to community associations and individual lot and condominium owners in both transactional and litigation matters. Sara’s focus on community association-related disputes includes drafting governing documents, advising on statutory changes, handling real property disputes, collections, foreclosure, and Federal Housing Administration (FHA) compliance.

Dedicated to involvement in legal and community organizations, Sara is a member of the Hillsborough Association for Women Lawyers, Hillsborough County Bar Association, Equality Florida, The Tampa Club and the Indo-US Chamber of Commerce. She has earned recognition from numerous organizations, including the Tampa Club 40 under 40 Award for leadership and engagement in the Tampa Bay Community.

Sara earned her J.D. and a Business Law Certificate from Florida State University College of Law, and a Bachelor of Science from the University of Florida.
