Eminent Domain

As a Partner in Hahn Loeser's real estate, construction and eminent domain practices, Tara J. Rose assists clients with real estate transaction work, leasing, acquisition and disposition, construction contracts, easements, and real estate and construction litigation, including construction defects, tax appeals, land use and zoning, and breach of purchase/sales agreements. Tara serves as co-chair of the firm's real estate practice group.

Tara's eminent domain experience includes representing landowners, tenants, and lenders relative to temporary, partial and total seizures from a multitude of scenarios ranging from roadway projects to regulatory takings to ensure just compensation is received.

Tara's clients benefit from her proactive and responsive approach to client service, as she views every client as a priority. As a result of her strong legal foundation, Tara always takes the time to understand a client's needs, advocate and obtain results.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Land acquisition, zoning and land use entitlement, and related public and private infrastructure improvements in connection with the development of a $100M(+) water filtration plant.
- Handled the real estate aspects of a multi-million-dollar transaction involving the sale of five client's locations. Three of the facilities involved conditional-use zoning conditions and one included a tax abatement agreement, each of which needed to be resolved for the buyer to lease the properties.
- Represented a real estate development group in connection with its $24 million acquisition of several existing apartment buildings. The client continues to acquire apartment complexes including in Oklahoma, Connecticut, and Ohio. Each transaction has featured complex financing structures (eg., syndication/traditional purchase loan plus Seller carry in exchange for Seller ownership stake and subsequent construction loan; tenancy in common to accommodate investor 1031 exchange funds and other challenges).
- Served as outside counsel for a major commercial real estate services and investment firm, helping negotiate leases across the US and overseeing complex suite buildouts.
- Assisted client in obtaining $5.5M industrial property.
