Construction Executive Magazine Places Hahn Loeser in Top 50 Construction Law Firms™ for Second Year

Cleveland (June 7, 2021) Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that the firm has been recognized by Construction Executive magazine in the Top 50 Construction Law Firms™ for 2021, ranking number 30 out of the 50 firms included in this year's list. Based on research through a proprietary survey of hundreds of U.S. law firms with construction law practices, the 2021 list was published in Construction Executive's June issue.

Construction Executive's 2021 list marked the second straight year of Hahn Loeser's Construction Team being the only Ohio-based law firm in the top 30 spots.

"We are extremely proud of holding this national distinction for the second year in a row," said Rob Remington, founder and Chair of Hahn Loeser's Construction Law Team. "Our entire team continues to prove its dedication to the construction industry as we find innovative ways to provide for our clients."

In addition, Remington was quoted in the accompanying article in this month's issue of Construction Executive entitled "Forging a Contract for a COVID-Exit World," stating: "We are fortunate to have a construction services group composed of non-lawyer industry professionals experienced in project/schedule/cost management, in addition to claims management and avoidance. They work closely with our construction lawyers and clients to analyze project schedule and cost impacts; assess contract requirements and project documentation; implement enhanced recordkeeping strategies to manage actual claims; and avoid or minimize the risk of potential claims."

Hahn Loeser's Construction Team is comprised of more than 30 attorneys who provide counsel on nearly every area of law impacting the construction industry, including contract negotiations, bid disputes, claims management, OSHA requirements, mechanic's liens, bond claims, alternative dispute resolution, litigation, and intellectual property.
