Hahn Loeser & Parks Expands Fort Myers Team with Addition of James L. Holloway III and Kenneth J. Erickson

FORT MYERS (July 30, 2021) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP recently welcomed James L. Holloway III and Kenneth J. Erickson to the firm’s Litigation Practice Area in its Fort Myers office.

“This is an exciting time for our office with the additions of James and Kenny,” remarked, Robert A. Cooper Partner-in-Charge of the Fort Myers office. “They are great additions to our growing litigation practice and their legal skills and experiences will be of tremendous value to our clients.”

Holloway most recently worked as a staff attorney for the School District of Lee County in Fort Myers, applying his legal experience in advising and counseling staff on business services, human resources and operations. Prior to his time at the School District, he spent seven years at the Lee County Attorney’s Office, focusing on complex litigation related to personal injury, worker’s compensation, eminent domain and code enforcement, and four years litigating criminal cases for the Public Defender 20th Judicial Circuit in Fort Myers.

Holloway is admitted to the Florida State Bar, the U.S. District Court Middle District of Florida, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He earned his J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2007 and his B.A. in political science and government from the University of Florida in 2004.

Erickson also earned his J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2019. He earned a B.S. in business management from Florida Gulf Coast University, graduating cum laude in 2016.

For the past two years, Erickson worked as an Assistant State Attorney at the office of the State Attorney, 20th Judicial Circuit.
