Kenneth A. Jones Joins Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP as Senior Counsel in Fort Myers

Southwest, FLA (August 9, 2019) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Kenneth A. Jones as Senior Counsel in the Litigation Area in the firm’s Fort Myers office.

Jones is experienced in eminent domain, condemnation and property right law, having handled hundreds of cases on behalf of individuals and property owners throughout Florida. Jones understands the disruptive impact eminent domain proceedings can have on his clients and works with appraisers, construction personnel, traffic engineers, land planners and economists to ensure his clients receive proper compensation after their land has been taken by the government.

Additionally, Jones has experience representing utility companies acquiring easements for installation and maintenance of utility systems. He also represents municipalities and government entities in eminent domain cases including the City of Sanibel, Lee County, and the Florida Department of Transportation.

“Jones is a dedicated lawyer who is able to solve uniquely complex matters,” said Robert A. Cooper, partner-in-charge of the firm’s Fort Myers office. “Our clients will benefit from his deep expertise, we are extremely fortunate to have him on board our growing team of eminent domain practitioners.”

Jones frequently writes and lectures on eminent domain issues impacting Florida property owners. He is an active member of the Association of Eminent Domain Professionals and The Florida Bar Eminent Domain Committee.

Before joining Hahn Loeser, Jones practiced with Roetzel & Andress for 22 years. Jones received his J.D. from Mercer University Walker F. George School of Law and his B.S. from Florida Atlantic University.
