Eric B. Levasseur Elected President of the Case Western Reserve School of Law Alumni Association Board of Directors

CLEVELAND (October 17, 2019) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that partner Eric B. Levasseur has been elected as President of the Case Western Reserve School of Law Alumni Association Board of Directors.

The Law Alumni Association helps the Law School achieve its mission by assisting with student recruitment, mentoring, placement, strengthening alumni ties, and supporting the School both publicly and financially.

Levasseur has been an Association board member since 2015. He most recently served as the board Vice President from October 2018 – October 2019. Prior to that he was the Secretary/Treasurer from 2017 – 2018. Levasseur follows closely behind his Hahn Loeser colleague Joan Gross, a long-time Law Alumni Association board member who recently wrapped up her term as Past-President.

Levasseur received his J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 2002 where he received the International Academy of Trial Lawyers Award and the William H. Wallace Award. He was also a member of the Jonathan M. Ault Mock Trial Team Moot Court Board, and a student member of the William K. Thomas Inn of Court.

The Law Alumni Board consists of 31 active alumni and one current student representative and spans several decades of class years. Members demonstrate professional excellence in the corporate, non-profit, private and public sectors.
