PRIMARY PRACTICES

Litigation

Lori joined the Firm in 2013, just one year after the opening of the San Diego office. She has over 18 years of legal experience and has played a key role in the growth of the San Diego office ever since. Lori assists with all phases of complex commercial, real estate, escrow & title insurance, and class-action defense litigation, from pre-litigation investigation all the way through trial, appeal, and judgment collection. Lori has also trained and supervised contract paralegals in complex cases as well as legal secretaries regarding office procedures and various software programs.

Lori has assisted with numerous jury and bench trials and has experience with trial presentation software programs and operating the hot seat. She is also proficient at a variety of litigation software programs and e-Discovery. Lori assists the litigation team with managing document review projects as well as collecting, importing, and producing documents by utilizing various e-Discovery programs.

In her free time, Lori volunteers with Frosted Faces Foundation, is a member of their social media team, and has fostered 24 dogs to date and counting.
