Meredith McBride Joins Hahn Loeser & Parks as Associate in Fort Myers

SOUTHWEST, FLA (July 15, 2019) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Meredith A. McBride as an associate in the Litigation Practice Area in the firm’s Fort Myers office.

“Meredith will be a valuable asset to our clients and a welcome addition to our firm,” said Robert A. Cooper, partner-in-charge of the firm’s Fort Myers office. “She has a great reputation, and we are thrilled to have her as part of our team.”

McBride will focus her practice on complex commercial litigation. She has developed a specialized knowledge of eminent domain law and will leverage her knowledge of government and construction regulations to guide her clients through the entire proceedings process. McBride also brings experience filing land development permit extension requests and zoning applications.

Before arriving at Hahn Loeser, McBride served as an associate at Aloia, Roland, Lubell & Morgan and as an Extern at Roetzel and Andress. McBride received her J.D. from Ave Maria School of Law, and her B.S., magna cum laude, from Campbell University.

McBride is a member of the Lee County Bar Association Foundation and Lee County Bar Association Foundation Golf Tournament Committee. McBride is an active community volunteer and has served as a committee member for the Muscular Dystrophy Association Annual Gala.
