Tara J. Rose Joins Hahn Loeser & Parks as Associate in Cleveland

Cleveland, OH (April 1, 2020) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Tara J. Rose as an associate in the Business Practice Area in the firm’s Cleveland office.

“Tara’s proactive approach will be a valuable asset to our clients and a welcome addition to our firm,” said Stanley R. Gorom III, Hahn Loeser’s CEO and Managing Partner. “She has an outstanding reputation, and we are thrilled to have her as part of our team.”

Rose will focus her practice on assisting clients with real estate transaction work, leasing, acquisition and disposition, construction contracts and easements. Additionally, she will provide guidance for clients with real estate and construction litigation, including construction defects, tax appeals, land use and zoning, and breach of purchase/sales agreements.

Before joining Hahn Loeser, Rose was an associate for five years at Buckingham, Doolittle & Burroughs, LLC. Rose received her J.D. from Florida International University College of Law in 2014, where she received CALI awards for Excellence in Legal Skills and Values II, and was named to the Dean’s List. She received her B.A. in 2010 from the University of Akron in International Business, where she was also named to the Dean’s List.

Rose is a candidate of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association’s Leadership Academy Class of 2020 as well as a member of its Women in Law Section and Social Justice Committee. She is also a Board Member for Stonebrook Montessori and a volunteer for the Special Olympics of Northeast Ohio.
