Jayne M. Skindzier Elected to the Board of Directors for The Salvation Army Naples & Collier County

Southwest Fla (July 15, 2020) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that partner Jayne M. Skindzier has been elected to the Board of Directors for The Salvation Army Naples & Collier County effective on May 1, 2020.

The Salvation Army is active all over the world and serves in over 100 countries. The Salvation Army Naples & Collier County serves all of Collier County, investing in the community by investing in individuals by providing short-term basic necessities and a continuum of services to families and individuals in need.

“The Salvation Army has made a tremendous impact all over the world,” said Skindzier. “As a long-time supporter, I am honored to join the Board of this amazing organization that provides healing and hope to the underserved of Naples and Collier County. As COVID- 19 continues to be a growing concern, The Salvation Army has been a leader in supporting our neighbors with income loss and urgent needs to ensure they have food and other essential items.”

As a partner in the Naples Office of Hahn Loeser, Skindzier focuses her practice on residential and commercial closings, title insurance, refinancing and loan transactions, leases and landlord/tenant disputes, sales and acquisitions. She regularly assists clients with construction law issues, landlord/tenant matters, foreclosures, contract disputes, and condominium and association law. Skindzier is also knowledgeable in the resolution of title defects, including trust and estate title complications and consulting on Florida homestead issues.
