Juan D. Bendeck Appointed to Board of Directors for Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida, Inc. and the Florida Humanities Council

October 29, 2014 — Southwest, Florida — Juan D. Bendeck, an estate planning attorney with Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP, has been appointed to two boards of directors. Mr. Bendeck will serve on the board for Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida, Inc., as well as on the board of the Florida Humanities Council.

Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida offers programs and services in order to provide career training, job placement, family strengthening and youth mentoring services to those in the community.

The Florida Humanities Council is an organization dedicated to providing Florida with the opportunity to explore the heritage and traditions of the state by providing grants to non-profit organizations in order to provide public humanities programs and cultural resources in the community.

In addition to his work with Goodwill Industries of Southwest Florida and the Florida Humanities Council, Mr. Bendeck is also a Planned Giving Committee member for both the Conservancy of Southwest Florida, and for Florida Gulf Coast University.

Mr. Bendeck concentrates his legal practice in the areas of estate planning, estate administration, and asset protection planning. His practice also includes the administration of complex wills and trusts. He is experienced with formulating and drafting tax-efficient estate plans for his clients, including more advanced and novel estate planning techniques geared toward lessening estate and gift tax liability.

Mr. Bendeck is a proud three-time graduate of the University of Florida. He received his J.D., Order of the Coif and with high honors, from the University of Florida College of Law in 1995, a B.S., with high honors, in economics from the University of Florida in 1992, and a L.L.M in taxation from the University of Florida Graduate Tax Program in 1997.
