Creditors' Rights Attorney Michael R. Dal Lago Joins Hahn Loeser in the firm's Naples Office

March 18, 2013 — Southwest FL — Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that Michael R. Dal Lago has joined the firm as a Creditors' Rights, Reorganization & Bankruptcy Area partner in Naples.

Mr. Dal Lago has more than 12 years of experience in all aspects of insolvency matters throughout an array of industries, including consumer retail, healthcare, and real estate. He regularly represents distressed companies, debtors, committees, secured and unsecured creditors, and purchasers of distressed assets in all stages of bankruptcy proceedings, asset sales, and out-of-court restructurings for top national companies. In addition, Mr. Dal Lago has led proceedings representing landlords and management companies in retail bankruptcy cases across the United States, and a number of health insurance companies in bankruptcy cases filed by health care providers, as well as those filed by insurees. He also represents corporate entities in all stages of bankruptcy litigation, including avoidance actions. He is admitted to practice law in Florida, New York and New Jersey.

Mr. Dal Lago is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and the Turnaround Management Association. He received his J.D. from New York Law School in 1998 and a B.A. from Northeastern University in 1995. Additionally, he studied abroad at the Institute of Public Administration in Dublin, Ireland in 1993 to take part in a program which focused on European politics and included a three-month internship with Ireland's Prime Minister.
