Craig Owen White Reappointed to the Trade Advisory Committee on Africa (TACA)

May 4, 2015 – Cleveland, OH – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that Craig Owen White has been appointed to the Trade Advisory Committee on Africa (TACA) by Michael B. Froman, the United States Trade Representative (USTR). Mr. White was first appointed to the committee in 2013.

The USTR has primary responsibility for developing and coordinating U.S. international trade policy and overseeing negotiations with other countries. TACA provides advice to the USTR in developing U.S. trade policy throughout sub-Saharan Africa. Trade advisory committees were established by Congress to provide an avenue for domestic private sector input into the trade negotiation process.

Mr. White is a partner with Hahn Loeser and co-chairs the firm's Food & Beverage and Government practice groups, in addition to his practice of mergers, acquisitions, entity governance and compliance, and business transactions. Mr. White is a member of the board of directors of Great Lakes Cheese Co., Inc., one of the largest cheese packaging companies in the U.S., as well as of the International Senior Lawyers Project, a New York-based provider of pro bono legal services around the world in support of the rule of law and equitable economic development. Mr. White also writes and lectures throughout sub-Saharan Africa on commercial law issues.
