Green Creates New Initiative for Women Lawyers of Franklin County

March 11, 2009 — Columbus, OH – Kerry Renker Green, an Associate in the Columbus office of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP, recently created the Dining Circle Initiative for the Women Lawyers of Franklin County. She also serves as a Board Member and Networking Chair of that organization.

The Women Lawyers of Franklin County, in conjunction with the Columbus Bar Association, have a new mentoring and networking program, the “Dining Circle” Initiative. The program groups together 8 to 10 women with varying professional backgrounds who will meet at a mutually convenient time and place once a month during the program year. Currently there are 170 attorneys participating in the program. Throughout the year, experienced members of the Bar, members of the Board of Trustees, judges and WLFC leadership will attend each Dining Circle group at least once, providing an opportunity for the group members to interact and network with local leaders in the legal profession. More information can be found online at http://www.wlfc.ws/Dining_Circle_Initiative.htm

Ms. Green focuses her practice in Litigation. Her broad scope of litigation experience includes state and federal trial work and AAA arbitrations in several jurisdictions throughout the country and appellate litigation before the Sixth Circuit. She earned her J.D., cum laude, in 2002 from The University of Akron School of Law and her B.S. from The Ohio State University in 1996.

Established in 1920, Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is a full-service law firm of more than 120 attorneys with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, and Akron, Ohio; and Naples and Fort Myers, Florida. More information on the Firm can be found at www.hahnlaw.com.
