Blaze R. Douglas Joins Hahn Loeser as a Litigation Associate in Fort Myers

November 3, 2014 — Southwest, FL — Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that Blaze R. Douglas has joined the firm as a litigation associate in the firm's Fort Myers office.

Ms. Douglas received her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law in 2014, where she was the research and writing editor for the Business Law Review. Blaze won the Evan A. Evans Constitutional Law Moot Court Competition, where she and her teammate defeated 23 other teams nationwide. She also was one of 25 winners selected from 200 competitors for the Charles C. Papy Jr. Moot Court Board based on her written brief and oral advocacy skills. This win placed her and her teammate as one of the top 10 moot court teams in the United States. Blaze is a member of the Order of Barristers and was recognized as the best in her class for both trial and pre-trial skills.

While in law school, Blaze interned for the Honorable George C. Hanks of the U.S. District Court of the Southern District of Texas. She also worked as an advocate for foster youth, children and families by representing clients in a variety of administrative and state court proceedings.

Prior to entering law school, Blaze earned a B.A. from the University of Texas with a triple major in History, Latin American Studies, and Government.
