Hahn Loeser Attorney Joan M. Gross Elected to Society of Benchers at Case Western Reserve University's School of Law

September 14, 2010 — Cleveland, OH — Joan M. Gross, a partner in the Cleveland office of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP, was recently elected to the Society of Benchers at Case Western Reserve University's School of Law, announced Lawrence E. Oscar, CEO and Managing Partner of the firm. Ms. Gross was formally inducted at the Society's Annual Meeting on September 11th.

The Society of Benchers is an honorary society for graduates and associates of Case Western Reserve University's School of Law.

Ms. Gross is a member of Hahn Loeser's Estate Planning & Wealth Transfer Group and focuses her practice on complex planning and drafting for high net worth individuals. She is admitted to practice law in Ohio and before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

Ms. Gross is certified by the Ohio State Bar Association as a specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law. She is listed in the 2005-11 editions of The Best Lawyers in America in the category of Trusts and Estates, and the 2008-2010 editions of Ohio Super Lawyers.

This year marks the 90th anniversary of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP. Established in 1920, Hahn Loeser is a full-service law firm of more than 125 attorneys with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, and Akron, Ohio; Naples and Fort Myers, Florida; and Indianapolis, Indiana. More information on the firm, and our 90th anniversary, can be found at www.hahnlaw.com.
