Kessler Reappointed to Supreme Court Commission

December 30, 2008 — Cleveland, OH – Marc J. Kessler, a Partner in the Columbus office of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP, was recently reappointed to the Ohio Supreme Court's Commission on Certification of Attorneys as Specialists. This was announced by Stephen E. Chappellear, Managing Partner of the Firm's Columbus office.

"We are extremely proud to have Marc as a member of this important Supreme Court Commission. This provides Marc a wonderful opportunity to participate in the statewide legal community," said Chappellear.

Mr. Kessler focuses his practice in the business and complex commercial litigation and sports law. His experience includes trial and appellate litigation in both state and federal court throughout the country involving business litigation, with an emphasis on complex commercial transactions. Mr. Kessler provides strategic business counsel to numerous corporations headquartered in the Midwest and serves as counsel for a California software company.

Law & Politics magazine named Mr. Kessler one of its "Ohio Super Lawyers." He also was the recipient of Business First's Forty Under 40 Award. Mr. Kessler earned his J.D. from Capital University Law School and his B.A., cum laude, from Dickinson College.

Established in 1920, Hahn Loeser + Parks LLP is a full-service law firm of more than 120 attorneys with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, and Akron, Ohio; and Naples and Fort Myers, Florida. More information on the Firm can be found at www.hahnlaw.com.
