

PRESS RELEASE

Contact:

Thomas D. Smanik, Chief Marketing Officer
216.274.2406
tsmanik@hahnlaw.com

Allison B. Christensen and Joel W. Hyatt Selected to 2014 GAIN Program

March 10, 2014 — Southwest Florida — Allison B. Christensen and Joel W. Hyatt, both associates in the Florida offices of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP, have been selected to participate in this year's Growing Associates in Naples™ (GAIN™) Program.

Growing Associates In Naples™ (GAIN™) is a program specifically designed for emerging leaders and professionals, aged 21-40, in Collier County, Florida. Participants learn about Collier County history, local government, election structures, the County's charitable foundations and other resources so that graduates can become involved and be an effective contributor in their community. The program runs from February through March and includes eight, two-hour sessions focused on professional development and peer networking.

Ms. Christensen, an associate in Hahn Loeser's Naples office, focuses her practice in the firm's Litigation Area. She has experience with complex commercial and general civil litigation matters, probate litigation, foreclosures, homeowners' associations and employment law. Ms. Christensen also has experience in sports, real estate, immigration and intellectual property law. She received her J.D., cum laude, from the Wayne State University School of Law in 2009, and her B.A. from the University of Michigan in 2006.

Mr. Hyatt, an associate in Hahn Loeser's Fort Myers office, is also a member of the firm's Litigation Area. He is an active member of the Boys & Girls Club of Collier County, and was previously an assistant coach for the Port Charlotte High School varsity basketball team. He received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2013, and his B.A. from Pennsylvania State University in 2004.

About Hahn Loeser

Established in 1920, Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is a full-service law firm of more than 130 attorneys with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, and Akron, Ohio; Naples and Fort Myers, Florida; Indianapolis, Indiana; and San Diego, California. More information on the firm can be found at www.hahnlaw.com.

###