Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP Attorneys Named Florida Super Lawyers

June 17, 2009 — Naples, FL — Andrew J. Krause, Jeanne L. Seewald and Theodore L. Tripp, Jr. of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP have been named Florida Super Lawyers by Law & Politics magazine.

Andrew J. Krause

Krause focuses his practice in estate planning, estate settlement and estate and trust administration. He serves as chair of the Florida section of the firm's Trusts and Estates Group, and has been board certified by the Florida Bar as a specialist in Wills, Trusts and Estates for the past 20 years. Krause has practiced law in Florida since 1981 after earning his LL.M. in Estate Planning from the University of Miami in 1981, his J.D., cum laude, from the Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 1980, and his B.S.B.A. in 1977 from Central Michigan University.

Jeanne L. Seewald

Seewald is the Managing Partner of Hahn Loeser's Southwest Florida offices and focuses her practice in the areas of intellectual property and general business law. She serves as co-chair of the firm's Corporate Transactions Group and is board certified by The Florida Bar as a specialist in Intellectual Property Law. Seewald serves as vice chair of the board of directors of the Greater Naples Chamber of Commerce, and as a member of the board of directors of the Collier County Bar Association. She earned her J.D., with honors, from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law in 1992, and her M.B.A. from the University of Central Arkansas in 1984.

Theodore L. Tripp, Jr.

Tripp focuses his practice in complex commercial litigation. He has been board certified by The Florida Bar as a specialist in Civil Trial Law for 22 years, and in Commercial Litigation for the past 12 years. Tripp has long been actively involved in community service and currently serves as Chancellor of the Diocese of Southwest Florida. He earned both his J.D., magna cum laude, in 1976 and his B.S. in 1972 from Florida State University.
