Gas prices keep climbing

Ohio gasoline prices continue their climb toward the $4 mark. The average price for regular gas is $3.74 in Monday's survey from auto club AAA, the Oil Price Information Service and Wright Express. That's up 8 cents from a week ago, when the average was $3.66. At this time last year, drivers were paying about $3.47 as prices were soaring toward record highs.

Hahn Loeser opens 7th office: Hahn Loeser & Parks a business law firm with offices in Ohio, Indiana and Florida, has opened its seventh office in San Diego. The new location will be managed by Michael Gleason, a litigation partner moving to San Diego from the firm's Cleveland headquarters.

OverDrive buys company: Cleveland-based OverDrive Inc., a major distributor of e-books and audiobooks for libraries and schools, announced Monday that it has acquired Australian e-book company Booki.sh. The acquisition is expected to allow OverDrive to supplement its popular e-book services with a cloud-based platform that enables both online and offline e-reading without requiring users to install any software or an app.
