Christensen & Hyatt Promoted to Associate at Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP; Legan Joins Firm as Paralegal

February 5, 2014 — Southwest Florida — Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that Allison B. Christensen and Joel W. Hyatt have been promoted to Associate at Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP. Additionally, Dawn M. Legan has joined the firm as a paralegal.

Ms. Christensen, previously a Staff Attorney in the firm's Naples office, focuses her practice on corporate law and litigation. She conducts due diligence for corporate mergers and acquisitions, and has experience with general civil litigation matters, contract disputes, and employment law. Ms. Christensen also has experience in sports, real estate, immigration and intellectual property law. She is admitted to practice law before the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, in the State of Michigan and before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. Ms. Christensen is a member of the American Bar Association, the Michigan Bar Association, and the Oakland County Bar Association. She received her J.D., cum laude, from Wayne State University Law School in 2009, and her B.A. from the University of Michigan in 2006.

Mr. Hyatt, previously a legal intern in the firm's Fort Myers office, focuses his practice in complex commercial litigation. Within the Southwest Florida community, Mr. Hyatt has worked with the Boys and Girls Club of Collier County and as an instructor with the Collier County Migrant Education's "Close-Up" Program. He received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2013, and a B.A. in English from Pennsylvania State University in 2004.

Ms. Legan has more than 15 years of experience as a dedicated trust and estate administration paralegal with experience preparing pleadings and correspondences, monitoring court deadlines, and preparing trust and estate accountings. She is also the Second Vice President of the Paralegal Association of Florida, Inc.'s Southwest Florida Chapter. Ms. Legan earned her Associate's degree in Legal Assisting from Edison College in 1996, an Associate's degree in General Education from Edison College in 2008, and a B.S. in Legal Studies, cum laude, from Florida Gulf Coast University, in 2011.
