figures. Apart from his work at Hahn Loeser, Mr. McCue enjoys serving on the board of the SPACES Gallery, and racing cars. He is listed in the 2010 & 2011 editions of "Ohio Rising Stars" by Ohio Super Lawyers. Mr. McCue received his J.D. from the University of Akron School of Law in 1998, and a B.S. in mechanical engineering from The Ohio State University in 1994. Mr. McCue practices out of the firm's Cleveland office.

Mr. Peer represents various businesses with distressed debt concerns both in and out of bankruptcy. This representation has resulted in successful distressed asset sales, restructurings through plans of reorganization and out of court resolutions. He represents both creditors' committees in chapter 11 cases and lenders and third parties faced with distressed debt situations. Creditor representation focuses on developing situation-specific strategies to resolve a host of debtor-creditor issues, including lien concerns, payout strategies, trade terms, enforcement actions, and how to transact with distressed business partners. Mr. Peer serves as co-chairperson for the board of the Northeast Ohio Chapter of the American Diabetes Association, and is listed in the 2009-12 editions of "Ohio Rising Stars" by Ohio Super Lawyers. He received his J.D., magna cum laude, from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law in 2003, and a B.A. from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1994. Mr. Peer practices out of the firm's Cleveland office.

Mr. VanderKaay advises private and public companies on a variety of business issues ranging from the organization and structure of entities to complex mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, venture capital investment transactions, joint ventures and securities matters. Mr. VanderKaay acts as general outside counsel to many of these companies, advising them on day-to-day business issues and corporate governance matters. He also advises clients on international business matters, including the creation of joint venture relationships in territories such as China, the European Union, South Korea and Africa, the creation and advancement of distribution agreements in countries such as Turkey, Ireland and Brazil, and the development of government-contracted supply agreements in South America, Africa and Europe. Mr. VanderKaay is listed in the 2010 & 2012 editions of "Ohio Rising Stars" by Ohio Super Lawyers. He received his J.D., with honors, from The Ohio State University in 2001, and a B.S. from Cornell University in 1998. Mr. VanderKaay practices out of the firm's Cleveland office.
