Estate Planning Attorney Mark R. Klym Joins Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP

September 9, 2010 — Southwest Florida — Mark R. Klym has joined Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP as Of Counsel in the firm's Naples office, announced Jeanne L. Seewald, partner-in-charge of the Southwest Florida offices. Mr. Klym will focus his practice on estate planning.

Mr. Klym's background includes the development of succession plans, drafting limited liability companies and start-ups, the administration of trusts and guardianships, and the administration of estates. He has a wealth of experience in the preparation and implementation of all segments of estate plans, including durable powers of attorney, health care directives, revocable trusts, irrevocable life insurance trusts, beneficiary designation planning and utilization of Section 529 plans.

Mr. Klym is active in the Southwest Florida community, where he currently serves on the board of directors of the United Arts Council of Collier County. He is also a member of the Naples Estate Planning Council, the Greater Naples Planned Giving Council, the Greater Naples Chamber of Commerce, the Environmental Affairs Committee of the Conservancy of Southwest Florida, and the City of Naples Code Enforcement Board.

Mr. Klym is admitted to practice law in Florida and North Carolina. He is a member of The Florida Bar Association's Business Law Section and its Real Property, Probate, and Trust Law Section. Mr. Klym earned his J.D. from Ohio Northern University College of Law in 1995, and a B.A. from the University of Vermont in 1992.

This year marks the 90th anniversary of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP. Established in 1920, Hahn Loeser is a full-service law firm of more than 125 attorneys with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, and Akron, Ohio; Naples and Fort Myers, Florida; and Indianapolis, Indiana.
