Mr. Fogarty was identified by corporate counsel through an unprompted, unsolicited process, and is one of only 318 other attorneys in the nation to receive this honor.

This elite recognition is reserved for attorneys who deliver superior service to clients at Fortune 1000 companies and other large organizations. It interviewed nearly 300 corporate counsel from Fortune 1000 companies across 15 industries to create its 2011 All-Star list.

A member of Hahn Loeser's board of directors and co-chair of the firm's Litigation Area, Mr. Fogarty has extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, ERISA, class action, health care, anti-trust, employment/non-competition agreements and mass tort litigation. He also has a thorough understanding of health care issues due to his longtime representation of a Fortune 100 managed care organization, and is currently defending one of the leading title insurance companies in the United States in class actions pending across the country. Early in his career, Mr. Fogarty was an Assistant United States Attorney, where he served as chief trial attorney for the United States in the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division, in all areas of litigation, including tort, contract, Title VII real property, and criminal actions.

Additionally, he is listed in the most recent additions of both Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business (among the Top 20 Litigators in Ohio) and Ohio Super Lawyers, and is AV[®] Rated by Martindale-Hubbell (its highest available rating for legal ability and professional ethics). Mr. Fogarty has also received several commendations from various federal agencies.
