Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP Honored with Community Service Award by Akron's Community Legal Aid

April 30, 2009 — Akron, OH – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP has been named Law Firm of the Year by Akron's Community Legal Aid (ACLA).

"Hahn Loeser has a long tradition of giving back to the communities in which we do business," said Lawrence E. Oscar, Managing Partner and CEO of the Firm. "While we foster the principle of community service in all of our attorneys, the attorneys in our Akron office have proven to be a shining example of that cornerstone in our firm's tradition, and we congratulate them for receiving this award."

This award was presented on April 28th at the 2009 Law Day luncheon in Akron. The award recognized the volunteer time and effort that the Akron attorneys have contributed to ACLA's Free Legal Aid Clinic. The clinic takes place on the first Tuesday of every month at the Lawton Community Center in Akron. Jeffrey A. Brauer and Louis F. Wagner worked together to establish this program.

John Cunniff, Katrina Klatka, James Schweikert, William Nabors, Cheri Michel, Jason Strobel and Michael Campbell should be applauded for their efforts, which made this initiative the success that it has become.

Established in 1920, Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is a full-service law firm of more than 120 attorneys with offices in Cleveland, Columbus, and Akron, Ohio; and Fort Myers and Naples, Florida. More information on the Firm can be found at www.hahnlaw.com.
