Construction Executive* Magazine Places Hahn Loeser in Top 50 Construction Law Firms™ for Third Consecutive Year

Cleveland (June 10, 2022) Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that the firm has been recognized by Construction Executive magazine in the Top 50 Construction Law Firms™ for 2022, ranking 35th of 50 firms included in this year's list. Based on research through a proprietary survey of hundreds of U.S. law firms with construction law practices, the 2022 list was published in Construction Executive's June issue.

Construction Executive's 2022 list marked the third straight year of Hahn Loeser's Construction Team being ranked in the top 35 spots, making it the only Ohio-based law firm with that distinction.

"We are very proud to receive this kind of national recognition year-after-year, especially from a well-respected industry publication like Construction Executive" said Rob Remington, Chair of Hahn Loeser's Construction Practice Group. "We pride ourselves on being practical problem solvers for our construction clients, which begins with a deep-rooted understanding of the industry and the laws and legal issues that impact their business."

In addition, Remington was quoted in the Executive Insights section of the June issue stating: "A contractor must be sure to include contract language that allows for compensation associated with early delivery and storage of materials that may be in short supply or difficult to find and secure."

Hahn Loeser's Construction Team is comprised of more than 40 attorneys who provide counsel on nearly every area of law impacting the construction industry, including contract negotiations, bid disputes, claims management, OSHA requirements, mechanic's liens, bond claims, alternative dispute resolution, litigation, and intellectual property.
