Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP Welcomes the Spain, Spain & Varnet P.C. Team to Chicago Office

CHICAGO (July 19, 2022) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce that Spain, Spain & Varnet P.C. the Chicago law firm specializing in estate planning services focused on persons with disabilities, has joined the Firm.

“We are excited to offer the unique strength that the attorneys from Spain, Spain & Varnet P.C., bring to Hahn Loeser,” stated CEO and Managing Partner Stanley R. Gorom III. “Their concentration on the range of issues affecting families with members who are disabled or elderly, brings an added depth of legal services to our Chicago office and to Hahn Loeser’s overall Trusts & Estates capabilities.”

The addition of founding members Richard and Nancy Spain and associates Sheri L. Willard, Jayme Levin-Muriel, and Patricia Leichenko, round out the attorney team from Spain, Spain & Varnet P.C. In addition, two paralegals, Elizabeth Zinanni and Maria Layas, will be joining the Firm.

“We are pleased to have found a full-service firm able to deliver a host of business services to our clients,” stated Richard Spain, who founded the firm with his wife, Nancy, in 1989. “Combining with Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP offers our clients the stability of a truly outstanding firm that has serviced clients for over 100 years. We share the same commitment to exemplary client service and could not be more satisfied that our combination came to fruition.”

“We are thrilled to welcome Spain, Spain & Varnet P.C.’s exceptional group of professionals to our office, along with the expanded legal services they bring to our clients,” remarked Chicago-Partner-in-Charge Steven E. Feldman. “We look forward to their transition and integration to our newly expanded office space.”
