Hahn Loeser Columbus Office Rises to Top Floors of Capitol Square Building

COLUMBUS (October 31, 2022) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce the relocation of its Columbus office to the top two floors (25th and 26th) of the Capitol Square Building at 65 East State Street. The move from the 14th floor of the same building became effective Monday, October 31.

The office update offers modern amenities with more space and flexibility, along with even better views of Capitol Square and downtown Columbus.

“We wanted to capture the vibrancy and energy of Columbus, and deliver to our people a premier workspace with modern amenities to enhance collaboration and continue to deliver exceptional client results,” remarked Columbus Partner-in-Charge A.J. Hensel. “Mission accomplished. Moreover, we now have the opportunity to accommodate our law firm’s growth in central Ohio to meet demand for legal services and exceed client expectations.”

Hahn Loeser’s Columbus office was the firm’s first outside of Cleveland, opening in 1989. Its attorneys and professionals are well known for serving clients across the country in complex business and civil litigation, with significant jury and bench trial experience as well as a thriving appellate practice. The Columbus team serves as trusted advisors to clients on a wide range of construction, business, corporate and securities, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property, real estate, franchise, trusts and estates, employment, immigration and OSHA matters.
