FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jessica Bayne Joins Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP in San Diego

SAN DIEGO (November 28, 2022) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Jessica K. Bayne, who joined the San Diego office as an Of Counsel member of the firm’s Trusts and Estates Practice Area. Bayne’s practice focuses on the development of sophisticated estate planning and wealth transfer strategies, including inter-generational dynastic planning and charitable gift planning minimizing estate, gift and generation-skipping taxes.

“Jessica brings exceptional qualifications to her role at the Firm, given her professional experience in both tax and estate planning,” remarked Danielle C. Humphries, Chair of the San Diego Trusts and Estates Practice Group. “Her background has prepared her for the many unique challenges encountered in this field of law, making her an extraordinary asset to our clients. We’re very excited for the value Jessica brings to both our clients and our team.”

Bayne has extensive experience implementing tax planning strategies with various types of irrevocable trusts and wealth transfer strategies for high net worth individuals, most recently as an estate planning attorney at a firm in Northern California. Additionally, Bayne gained invaluable tax planning experience practicing at a tax and accounting firm in Los Altos. She brings both depth and breadth of knowledge to her position, having also practiced corporate law in San Francisco and estate planning and employee benefits law in Austin, Texas.

Bayne is admitted to practice in California. She earned her J.D. from The University of Texas School of Law, where she was a Chief Articles Editor of the Texas Intellectual Property Law Journal. Bayne earned her B.S. in mechanical engineering from The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
