Craig Owen White Honored by National Black Lawyers Top 100

(January 23, 2024) –Hahn Loeser Cleveland Partner-in-Charge Craig Owen White has been re-selected for membership with The National Black Lawyers - Top 100 for Ohio. The National Black Lawyers is an invitation-only professional development and networking association comprised of the top African American attorneys from across the country. The exclusive organization selects the most successful and influential lawyers with reputations for providing excellent legal representation in their respective practice areas.

White earned his first NBL selection in 2021. His practice guides established and growth-oriented companies through mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, enterprise governance, and financing and licensing issues in the United States and abroad.

Notable moments in White’s career include being appointed to two terms on the Trade Advisory Committee on Africa (TACA) by the U.S. Trade Representative, providing advice to the USTR in developing U.S. trade policy throughout sub-Saharan Africa. He was also honored by The International Senior Lawyers Project (ISLP) with a Global Impact Volunteer Award for going above and beyond the call of duty.

The NBL recognizes and promotes the present contributions of African American lawyers and connects lawyers, locally and nationally, to share their knowledge with other members and the larger legal community.
