FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hahn Loeser M&A Team represents Webster Industries, Inc. in sale transaction for ESOP-owned Company

Recently, the Hahn Loeser Mergers and Acquisitions team led by Partner Benjamin A. Cooke, executed a transaction for Webster Industries, Inc., an ESOP-owned manufacturing company in Tiffin, Ohio. Associates James P. Oliver and Kelsey R. Holmberg supported the entire transaction team. The M&A team was assisted by Partner Jeffrey M. Folkman (ESOP/Tax), Partner Steven E. Seasly and Of Counsel, Ann E. Knuth (Labor/Employment), and Partner John Paul Lucci (Corporate/M&A), Partner Christopher R. Butler (IP) and many others. The Hahn Loeser team also worked closely with the client's outside general counsel, Brent Howard, to coordinate the real estate elements and other corporate matters. HLP was proud to represent Webster and its management team.

Andrew J. Felter, President/CEO of Webster, commented: "The exceptional team at Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP provided invaluable legal guidance, playing a crucial role in facilitating Webster's successful sale to MPE Partners in partnership with management. Their expertise and dedication were instrumental in navigating the complex legal matters of our employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) structure with precision and professionalism. They were such an invaluable part of our very strong and trustworthy team."
