Reed Baker Joins Hahn Loeser & Parks Fort Myers

FORT MYERS (April 5, 2024) – Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP is proud to announce the addition of Reed F. Baker, who joined the Fort Myers office as an associate in the Firm’s Litigation Area.

“Reed is a valuable addition to our firm’s Litigation Practice group,” remarked Fort Myers Partner-in-Charge Robert A. Cooper. “We are thrilled to welcome him aboard and look forward to the experience and insight he will bring to our team.”

Baker earned his J.D. and graduated cum laude from California Western School of Law in 2018, where he was an associate editor for the Law Review and earned a Distinguished Advocate Award. He attended the University of Michigan on a men’s basketball scholarship before transferring to Florida Gulf Coast University, where he continued his collegiate basketball career and earned his B.A. Baker then played professional basketball in Turkey, Thailand and Canada and organized camps for underprivileged youth in India, Colombia, Belarus, Panama and Brazil.

While completing his law degree, Baker served as a law clerk for the United States Attorney’s Office, Civil Division. Baker is admitted to practice in Florida, California, and the Northern, Central and Southern Districts of California.
